Dear Sir,

Eastern Chamber of Commerce acknowledges and appreciates Dateline Media's role and creativity in conceptualising and making an outstanding audio-visual documentary on the Chamber and various other creative works to promote various social goals of the Chamber including development of entrepreneurship and start-up ecosystem and our various campaign promoting the causes of sustainable development.

Your creativity and its successful execution have successfully projected and in fact given a facelift to the image of the Chamber, using various online and offline platforms. We will always be keen on joining hands with your organisation in any of our future campaign and social initiative.

Looking forward to a long-term association.

Thanking you

Subhojit Roy
